Lone Star State Dulcimer Festival: Everything went well except the weather guessers guessed wrong for THE ENTIRE WEEKEND! How could professional weather people be so wrong? I guess that happens when you're trying to predict God. It was a great weekend. Thanks to everyone that helped make it happen. I could list names, but I'd probably forget someone and that would really make me feel bad for a long, long time. The workshops were well attended, the concerts were great, the contests were fun and the weather was PERFECT! Like it was perfect ALL WEEKEND! (I know. I'm still trying to get over it.) 41 years in a row, almost. We are already working on the 42nd Almost Annual Lone Star State Dulcimer Festival. Thanks for coming and participating, especially all those that provided stage performances. Most of the performers share their music at this festival for free. That's one of the reasons we can keep it free. Thanks to everyone for all the hard work.

Needing People to Play With: Amber Milburn is looking for people that would like to get together and play dulcimer. You can contact Amber at: Phone: 936.701.1059 (Call or Text) or 501.920.8609 (Call or Text) or by Email: ambermilburn@gmail.com Sorry Amber but I deleted the email that said where you are located. I'd call but it's late and I really need to get this out. I'll try to fix it later or you can email me back and I'd do an addendum to the newsletter. Thanks.

Video: If I did this right you can see me getting pummeled by my grandkids at Glen Rose.

And since I'm in such an adventurous mood this might turn into a flyer for the Winter Creek Reunion.

And quite possibly this is a video of the Glen Rose Festival sent to me by Jonathan Pettijohn.

(If any of this actually works nobody will be more amazed than me. If it doesn't work y'all will be wondering what it is you're missing...)
